BRITISH SUCCESSFUL.

They Drive the Boers from Positions
With Heavy Loss.

NET FOR THE BOERS.

Desperate Efforts Made by French to Cut Off Their Retreat from the Orange Free State—Boer Force Is Large.

London, April 25.—The war office has received the following dispatch from General Roberts:

"Bloemfontein, April 25.—Pole-Carew's division reached Roodekop yesterday evening without casualties. Its advance was covered by cavalry and horse artillery, which drove back the enemy with heavy loss, dead being left on the ground. Mounted troops halted for the night at Grootfontein and at 7:30 o'clock this morning crossed Modder river at Vaalsbank in accordance with instructions of French who endeavored to place himself astride the enemy's line of retreat. General French's arrival near Modder river, evidently, however, alarmed the Boers who evacuated the strong position as far as Dewetsdorp during the night and it was occupied by General Chermides division early this morning. Mounted infantry drove the enemy off the kopje in the neighborhood of the waterworks without casualties on our side."

The indecisive action and slow progress of Generals Hart and Brabant are relatively unimportant when compared with the progress of General French. It is now evident that Roberts wishes not only to defeat the Boers, but to pen them as at Paardeberg. To this end 40,000 British troops are concentrating in the southeastern portion of the Orange Free State and operating according to carefully devised plans in which the delay may be as much due to strategy as to necessity. The success of this important movement almost entirely depends on French. If he can sweep down from the north with the rapidity of execution which he displayed at Kimberley and Paardeberg, he will effect the same swift and sudden transformation which followed the cavalry evolutions of two months ago. According to the last account he was pushing on successfully. Every day the Boers remain at Wepener improves French's chances of success.

To put a girdle around 25,000 Boers estimated to be in the northeastern part of the Orange Free State, Roberts has evidently taken large chances, as British critics differ regarding the result; some declaring it impossible for the Boers to escape from the net, while others reserve opinion until more definite news of French's progress is received.

There was a general impression that the main advance upon Pretoria will be taken up without any concentration at Bloemfontein as with more than half the British army stretched in echelon across the Orange Free State such changes in directions would indefinitely delay the accomplishment of Roberts' main objective.

BOERS AGAIN STRONG.

After Being Driven Back They Make Advance at Night.

Maseru, Basutoland, April 25.—On breaking up of the bivouac Tuesday, Generals Brabant and Hart discovered that the Boers who fell back towards Wepener Monday had advanced during the night several miles nearer to Straus farm, which is a favorable position for resistance. Colonel Dalgetty was severely attacked with six guns Tuesday, probably with the view of preventing him assisting the relief column. It seems that Dalgetty had practically been relieved, but the offensive attitude assumed by the Boers shows this idea to have been erroneous. Hart is not a few miles behind Brabant's division, which is waiting for the former to come up.

Thirteen British wounded were removed to Mafeking and placed in the English church.

Generals Hart and Brabant covered only a short distance Tuesday and finding a strong force opposed to them bivouaced on the ground they occupied. Firing has been desultory and the casualties very slight.

The British are edging up towards the Basutoland border.

Persistent rumors are in circulation that Commandant Olivier with 1500 men are preparing to attack Hart's rear.

No sign of advance of General Rundle from Dewetsdorp.

SIEGE OF WEPENER.

It Has Not Been Raised, Although So Reported.

London, April 25.—The reports that the siege of Wepener had been practically raised were apparently premature. The Boer attack upon Colonel Dalgetty's northern position, as described from Maseru, was probably a final attempt to rush the garrison before securing a safe retreat, and as Colonel Dalgetty successfully repulsed the attack, little further anxiety is felt on his account.

General Roberts has now some 40,000 or more men and 150 guns, covering the whole western semi-circle around Wepener, while General Hamilton has occupied the waterworks, practically without opposition. The waterworks were found undamaged with the exception of the removal of the sliding valves of the pumping engines.

The Boers can now only escape without resisting an encounter northward to Ladybrand, and the chance of a successful outcome of the plans of General Roberts depends on whether the British troops can reach Thabanchu and Ladybrand before the retreat commences from Dewetsdorp and Wepener.

Fighting Near Wepener.

Aliwal North, April 25.—It is reported that firing has been heard between Zazatron and Wepener, and it is believed that Generals Brabant and Hart are in contact with the enemy.

The Boers are so numerous that it took them two days to cross the Caledon river at Bastards drift.

Dewetsdorp Evacuated.

London, April 25.—Roberts telegraphed the following message to the war office: "Bloemfontein, April 24.—Dewetsdorp occupied by Chermides without opposition at 9:30 o'clock this morning."

MESSAGE IN BLOOD.

The One Dr. Ruiz Wrote on the Back of a Chair With His Own Blood.

New York, April 25.—The state department at Washington has notified Mrs. Rita L. Ruiz, widow of Dr. Ricardo Ruiz, who was murdered in prison at Guatabacca, Cuba, while a captive of the Spaniards, that the chair on which he wrote his last message would be forwarded to her.

This chair came into the possession of General Fitz-Hugh Lee soon after the murder of Dr. Ruiz, which occurred Feb. 4, 1896. General Lee kept it until he left Havana two years ago when he gave it to the British vice consul, Mr. Jerome, who kept it until he left Havana after the war.

The message which was written on the back of this chair by Dr. Ruiz, who dipped his nails in his own blood reads: "Mercedes, Mine, Evangeline, Ricardo, good bye, my children of my life. I give you my blessing. Be obedient to your mother. Good bye, Rita of my soul."

DEPLORABLE CONDITION.

People Found Starving in Mississippi Swamps on Account of Flood.

Jackson, Miss., April 25.—The relief expedition has returned from the overflowed district of Rankin county. They report a deplorable condition of affairs among the inhabitants who have been left homeless by the high water. Over 40 families, nearly all negroes, were found destitute and in a starving condition and in several instances people were found on small islands who had not tasted food for three days.

Two boat loads of rations were distributed among them. A popular subscription is now being taken for further relief.

On one small island the relief party found 40 negroes, over 100 hogs, cattle and dogs gathered and shut off on all sides by high water.

The Plague in Hawaii.

Washington, April 25.—The surgeon general of the marine hospital service has received a report from Surgeon Carmichael in charge at Honolulu under date of April 9. He says since the report of March 31, one new case of the plague has been discovered. The victim was a white girl and the case was fatal. Prospects, Dr. Carmichael says, are encouraging. Only one detention camp is open. There were two convalescents at the pesthouse, but no other cases. No new cases have been reported from the other islands.

Surgeon Carmichael denies the report that there has been a large number of deaths from plague on the Island of Kaula. No general crusade has been begun against rats which have spread the plague, but a bounty of 25 cents has been offered and professional rat catchers have been appointed by the board of health.

Will File no More Charters.

Austin April 25.—Secretary of State Hardy makes the announcement that he will file no more charters and issue no more permits until after May 1 except where it is especially requested by applicants apprised of the conditions fully. His reasons for this are that any corporation filing a charter or receiving a permit now prior to May 1 will have to pay franchise tax, amounting to a year's tax for days intervening between now and May 1, 1900, and on or before May 1, 1900, would have to repay the same amount or else incur a forfeiture of their rights.

Strike at Houston.

Houston, April 25.—Three hundred negro laborers who had been employed to work on the new sewer system had hardly taken up their shovels this morning before they went on a strike. The negroes claim that the contractor

THE PORTE GIVES IN.

Promises to Settle With the United States for Armenian Atrocities.

TROUBLE IS AVOIDED

Turkey also Agrees to the Rebuilding of the Destroyed Missions Which Is Considered More Important Than Indemnity.

Washington, April 25.—It can be stated on authority that the negotiations respecting the American missionary claims are progressing in the most satisfactory manner. The state department has received from Mr. Griscom, the United States charge d'affaires, a cablegram announcing the porte has undertaken to meet all of the engagements made with the United States regarding the payment of claims set up on account of the destruction of the American mission property in Turkey.

It is not stated now when the payment will be made and it is surmised that owing to the many obligations of greater magnitude pressing on the porte some time may elapse before the money is actually in hand.

The charge also confirmed the press reports as to the publication by the porte of an irade authorizing the rebuilding of the destroyed mission at Harput and Harsam and the construction of an annex to the Robert college, the great American Theological school in Constantinople.

This action of the Turkish authorities is regarded as of an importance far exceeding the mere payment of $90,000 on account of the property destroyed by a mob.

It amounts to the recognition of the right of our missionaries to build their schools in Turkey and ensures them against what they regard as a gradual but absolute exclusion from the domains of the sultan. Under the Turkish law buildings destroyed under the conditions surrounding those at Harput can be reconstructed only by special permission of the porte.

On the whole the officials here regard Mr. Griscom's cable as marking the safe passing of what might have been regarded as a critical point in the negotiations and feel confident that in addition to this notable concession the United States will secure all of its just claims.

OTHERS INTERESTED.

Embassies Ask Their Governments About Their Armenian Claims.

Constantinople, April 25.—In view of the steps taken by the United States government in regard to claims arising out of the Armenian massacres, the embassies of Great Britain, France, Austria, Italy and Germany have asked their government for instructions as to their similar claims.

The promulgation of the irade authorizing the rebuilding of the American structures burned at Kharput and the enlargement of Roberts college, are regarded as showing clearly the desire of the yiliez kiosk to be agreeable to the United States in the hope the latter will not press for payment the indemnity. The United States government, however, has no intention of abandoning its claim.

The American legation has also succeeded in obtaining permission for the continued working by American missionaries of the hospital at Kaisarieh, which the authorities have been trying to shut up on the pretext that certain regulations have not been observed.

The American vice consul at Alexandretta was recently prevented by police from shipping two naturalized American Armenians who were on their way to the United States on the ground that they originally left their native country surreptitiously. The legation called the attention of the Porte to the affair and orders have been sent to the Alexandretta to permit the embarkation of the Armenians. The report of the vice consul is awaited at the legation in order to determine if there are grounds for demanding reparation.

QUAY DENIED A SEAT.

Senate Says the Governor No Right to Appoint Him.

LOST BY ONE VOTE.

Several Speeches Made for and Against the Seating of Mr. Quay and the Final Vote Was 33
Against to 32 For.

Washington, April 25.—Matthew S. Quay has been refused a seat in the United States senate on the appointment of the governor of Pennsylvania by a vote of 33 to 32. The entire time of the senate yesterday was devoted to debate on the question, many of the greatest lawyers and orators in the body delivering speeches. As the day's session wore on and the hour for the final vote approached, the galleries gradually filled until they were thronged with multitudes, while other multitudes were unable to gain admission. On the floor of the senate was every member of the body now in the city and scores of members of the house.

The great throng listened with deep attention to the argument of Mr. Spooner in favor of seating the former Pennsylvania senator and to the dramatic and fiery eloquence of Mr. Daniel of Virginia, who appealed to his colleagues to do, what on his oath as a senator, he deemed right, and vote to do justice to him who was knocking at the senate door.

As the big clock indicated 4 o'clock there was a hush in the chamber. Mr. Frye, in the chair, announced that the hour for the final vote had arrived and that the question was the pending motion of Mr. Chandler to strike out of the resolution declaring Mr. Quay not to be entitled to a seat, the word "not." Senators throughout the chamber eagerly followed the rollcall, for all knew the vote would be close.

The first sensation was caused by the failure of Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota to answer to his name, although he was in his seat. When Mr. Vest's name was called he voted "No," in a clear, distinct voice, thus dashing the last hope of the friends of Mr. Quay, who had expected confidently that the distinguished Missourian would vote for his long time personal friend. Amid perfect silence it was announced that the senate had denied to Mr. Quay the seat for which he had sought for months past, the vote being 33 to 32.

The house adopted the Foraker resolution to continue the present officers in Puerto Rico in office until the appointments are made under the civil government act as amended by the committee on insular affairs. The amendments require that all franchisees shall be approved by the president before they become operative and place certain restrictions upon chartered corporations such as the issuing of stock or bonds, except for cash, and inhibiting real estate corporations or the holding of real estate by corporations except such as is necessary to carry out the purposes for which they are created.

The house then resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. About 20 pages of the bill were disposed of, the only substantial amendment adopted being one to give extra compensation to letter carriers who worked in excess of 48 hours a week.

DEPRESSES HIS FRIENDS.

Quay's Defeat Was Entirely Unexpected
by His Home Followers.

Harrisburg, April 25.—M. S. Quay's defeat in the senate at Washington fell like a bombshell in the camp of his followers gathered in this city for the convention today. It was entirely unexpected. In anticipation of his triumph the regular organization leaders had come together from all over the state and extensive preparations had been made to celebrate what they expected would be a joyous occasion. Instead, however, of parades, fireworks, lively tunes by the bands, all was gloom last night among the adherents of Mr. Quay.

Not all is sorrow in Harrisburg, however. In the headquarters of the anti-Quayites or "insurgents," presided over by State Senators Martin of Philadelphia and Flynn of Pittsburg, there were gathered last night a party of men who took an active part in the opposition to Mr. Quay during the last session of the legislature and they were not slow to express their satisfaction at the turn affairs have taken.

The general opinion among Quay's supporters is that the result at Washington takes their leader out of the race for the senatorship. The positive declaration is made that Mr. Quay will no longer be a candidate. Governor Stone is spoken of as the party candidate in the event of Mr. Quay's withdrawal from the race. The anti-Quayites declare that the governor would be equally as objectionable as Mr. Quay.

Car Inspector Killed.

Taylor, Tex., April 25.—W. B. Beardon, night car inspector for the International and Great Northern railroad at Taylor, was accidentally killed. He was swinging onto a boxcar of a moving freight and struck a switch target, which knocked him under a car. He was badly mangled and died instantly. He has been in the service of the International and Great Northern railway for the past 10 years.
